Experience Tradition, Embrace Innovation

Overview

Together with Tutti Music we are delighted to offer an English Plus Music Programme which combines expert English-language tuition with ensemble music training and orchestral instruction.

This course is designed for students between the ages of 11 - 17 years and offers young people the opportunity to improve their English and music playing skills in a two-week programme. The music training and instruction is given by professional musicians, conductors and composers.

A minimum English level of B1 is required.

Timetable

Monday - Friday Mornings:

Group tuition with two different teachers.

09:15 - 10:45: Teacher 1 - Grammar and Use of Language

11:00 - 11:15: mid-morning break

11:15 - 12:30: Teacher 2 - Speaking and Listening Skills

Monday - Thursday Afternoons:

Tutti Music will provide 20 hours of ensemble music tuition per two week stay, through English, with professional music tutors in small groups together with English speaking students. The music course finishes with all music students coming together for a music performance.

Tutti Music aims to provide motivated young music students with a fun and relaxed way to enjoy and explore music-making with young players from other countries, through English.

Tuition takes place in our dedicated music classrooms on the campus of Alexandra College, in the leafy suburb of Milltown.

Evenings:

2 evening activities per week included in the programme (host family) or 7 evening activities per week (residence).

Weekends:

One full-day excursion each weekend to places of cultural interest.
