About Griffith College

Established in 1974, Griffith College is Ireland's largest independent third-level institution, with campuses in Dublin, Cork, and Limerick.

The main Dublin campus is located within a mile of St. Stephen's Green in the city centre. Situated on seven acres and offering a wide range of amenities, it is a historic site with original campus buildings dating back to 1813.

Griffith College enjoys a national and a growing international reputation for student success. The College has gained an enviable, award-winning reputation for providing students with first-class lectures and excellent study material in a wide variety of subjects. In Griffith College, there is something for everyone. Today, there are just under 8,000 students studying in the College, which is a designated educational institute of Quality and Qualifications Ireland (QQI).
